A Tale of a Princess and Her Pets

Once upon a time, in a faraway kingdom, there lived a princess who was crazy about animals. In fact, she had so many pets that her kingdom was starting to look like a zoo. Since everyone else in the kingdom loved animals too, life was very peaceful.

One day the Prime Minister came running into the throne room with an anxious look on his face.

"Terrible," he cried. "This is awful!"

"What's wrong?" asked the King.

"It's the Princess," he panted. "She wants another pet!"

"Another pet?" the King exclaimed. "We're overrun with animals as it is!"

But the King was an old softy who loved his daughter very much, and both he and the Prime Minister knew that the Princess would get her way.

The Prime Minister continued. "There is another problem. We have too many animals, and the castle staff cannot take care of them all! Perhaps if we hired a zookeeper...."

"An excellent idea!" said the King. "I'm glad I thought of it. Since my daughter and her pets deserve only the best, we'll hire the finest zookeeper in the land."

By royal decree, the best zookeepers for miles around were summoned to compete in contests of skill and strategy in order to win the job of Royal Zookeeper.

Here's where you come in. Help Polly, a young animal lover, prove that she's the best person for the job. You'll compete against the royal guards, the royal staff... and perhaps even the Princess herself! Only the person who keeps all the animals fed and happy will become the Royal Zookeeper.

Time to feed the animals!
